

GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR SUBMITTING FILMS IN COMPETITION

1. PRESENTATION

MONSTRA | Lisbon Animation Festival (hereinafter, MONSTRA) is organized by Taumotrópio Lda., with the support of ICA | Institut for Cinema and Audiovisual, CML | Câmara Municipal de Lisboa (Lisbon City Hall), MEDIA | Creative Europe program, EGEAC | Empresa de Gestão de Equipamentos e Animação Cultural, E.M., Cinema São Jorge e AMC | Meridional Cultural Association. The festival will be held in Lisbon between March 18th and 29st 2020.

MONSTRA is an event where animated film meets other media and arts, aiming to present, disseminate, experiment and discuss ideas, crossing over new artistic approaches and forms, on which animated film is the narrative and aesthetic expression. The Festival's main goal is to present and promote the best animated films made all over the World.

2. QUALIFICATION FOR ENTRY

a) Categories

Films are admitted for competition in the following categories:

- Feature Films
- Short Films
- Student Short Films
- Super Short Films
- Short Films for Children and Youth
- Series

Films previously submitted to this festival will not be considered eligible.

For the Series category, the applicant must submit a minimum of 3 (three) episodes.

The applicant should not charge screening fees to the festival, regarding the screening of films in competition.

b) Animation

It is eligible any film created frame by frame, in any technique (analogical, digital or mixed). Animated sequences must correspond to a minimum of 60% of the total duration of the film.

c) Length

Feature Films should be longer than 45 minutes.

Short Films and Series should not be longer than 44 minutes.

Student Short Films should not be longer than 30 minutes.

Short Films for Children and Youth should not be longer than 30 minutes.

Super Short Films should not be longer than 2 minutes, not including the final credits.

d) Date of production

Feature Films should be finished after January 1st 2018.

The films on all the remaining categories should be finished after October 1st 2018.

Applicants whose films are not finished by the deadline for submission, but that foresee the work to be finished by December 31st 2019, can submit the film by sending a preview screener and contact the organization so both parties can reach an agreement to validate the submission. The organization can accept or decline the submission, depending on the state of conclusion of work.

e) Language

Films with dialogue, commentaries or written text in a language other than English must have English subtitles included and its dialogue list in English or Portuguese must be sent as well.

3. TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

a) Submission

For selection purposes, it is recommended to upload the film in a video streaming platform with password protection (for example Vimeo, YouTube, among others).

Screener copies can also be sent through file transfer platforms (such as Wetransfer, Myairbridge, Smash, among others) to the e-mail films@monstrafestival.com with the subject "Submission – [category] – [title]", after submitting the entry form.

b) Selection

For the official screening, film copies must be sent in one of the following formats:

- DCP
- Digital file – ProRes 4444 or 422, DNxHD, H264 or H265
- Blu-ray or DVD

Screening formats will be announced to each applicant in the selection notification.

4. REGISTRATION

a) Deadlines

The film submission is free and must be made online at www.monstrafestival.com/submissions. Submissions for the International Short Films for Children and Youth category are running until October 13th 2019. Submissions for the remaining International Competition categories are running until November 11th 2019. After this date, submissions for the National Competition keep running until January 12th 2020.

b) Category

Submitted films must fill all the requirements detailed on section 2.

If a short film produced in a school context is submitted to the Short Film Competition, it will only be considered for the Student Short Film Competition.

If a short film with a running time inferior to 2 minutes is submitted to any category, it will only be considered to the Super Short Film Competition.

Short films with aesthetics, approaches and subjects appropriate for young audiences will also be considered to the Short Films for Children and Youth Competition.

All the Portuguese films submitted to the international competition will also be considered to the national competition. This category will be exclusively available until January 12th 2020 after the closing of the submission for the international competition.

Each film can only be submitted once, in only one category.

By submitting several films, the applicant must complete a different entry form and authorization form for each film. For the category Series, the applicant must submit a minimum of 3 (three) episodes.

c) Rights

The films must be submitted by the distributor or rights holder.

The submission is only valid with the attachment of the authorization form, after being filled and signed. The authorization form must be signed and, in the case of school, producer or distributor, should also be stamped.

d) Materials

The following materials must be attached on the entry form:

- Screener link for viewing the film (and password, if needed) or digital file sent through a file transfer platform to the e-mail films@monstrafestival.com after submitting the form, filling the requirements detailed on the section 3. a);
- Short and long synopsis (maximum 100 and 300 characters);
- Director(s) picture in JPG or PNG (300dpi);
- 3 film stills (JPG or PNG, 300dpi);
- Dialogue list in English (SRT, TXT, RTF or DOCX);
- Authorization form, after being filled and signed (PDF or JPG).

Exceptionally, if absolutely necessary, screener copies can also be sent in a physical format (Blu-ray, DVD, hard drive or USB-stick) to the address detailed on section 11, after notifying the organization to the e-mail films@monstrafestival.com. The shipping costs will be supported by the applicant. Screener copies in a physical format will not be returned and will be stored in the festival's archive, unless agreed otherwise.

5. SELECTION

a) Selection Jury

The selection jury will choose, among the submitted films, the official selection for competition in the festival. The number of selected works will depend on the overall program. The jury can program the film in a category different from the one it was submitted on, as detailed on section 4. b). The jury can cancel any category available for submission and place the films in another category considered appropriate. The Jury decision is final and not appealable.

The festival's artistic director can select works submitted for competition for non-competitive sections.

b) Selection notification

The applicant whose films are selected will be notified by e-mail after December 26th 2019. The organization will only notify the applicants with selected works. The official selection will be announced on the festival's website by February 2020.

c) Official screenings

The applicant will be notified about the date of screening until February 2020.

The competition jury will be appointed by the artistic director of the festival and will be composed by international professionals of animation, cinema, music and other arts. In absolutely no way will they be involved in any of the works submitted to competition. The jury members will be announced on the festival's website by February 2020.

During the festival, the jury will choose the winner films in each category. The Jury's decision regarding the awarded films will be final and not appealable.

The awarded films will be screened in a special screening dedicated to awarded films.

6. SENDING OF SCREENING COPIES

a) Deadline

The official screening copies must be sent to the organization until January 19th 2020. The screening formats must fill the requirements detailed on section 3. b). The screening formats may depend on the equipment of each venue.

b) Language

Films with dialogues, commentaries or text in a language other than English must have English subtitles included and its dialogue list in English or Portuguese must be sent in order to present the film with double subtitling (English and Portuguese) if necessary.

c) Dubbing

The films with dialogue selected to the Short Films for Children and Youth competition may be dubbed into Portuguese, in order to match the target audience interpretation needs. The festival organization will confirm the need for dubbing when notifying the applicant about selection. If possible, the applicant should provide an audio track of the film with no dialogue. The dubbed version will be provided to the applicant and will only be screened after the approval.

d) Shipping

The shipping of copies in a physical format will be supported by the applicant and other instructions for shipping will be discussed separately with each applicant. The return of screening copies in a physical format will be supported by the organization, until a maximum of 30 (thirty) days after the ending of the festival, unless agreed otherwise.

e) Insurance

The organization is responsible for the storage and insurance of copies in a physical format only during the period in which the festival handles the copy. The applicant must inform the organization about the amount in € (euros) of the physical copy.

f) Storage of digital copies

After the official screening, the organization will store all the digital copies on the festival's archive, unless agreed otherwise. No public screening will be made after the festival without previous authorization from the director, distributor or rights holder.

7. INVITATION TO THE DIRECTORS

MONSTRA invites 1 (one) director per film to participate in the festival in order to present their film, ensuring a 3 (three) night accommodation and accreditation for all the screenings and events of the festival. The director must be present in the screening of their film and participate in filmmaker / audience talks. In case the director comes to the festival and misses the presentation of their film with no justifiable reason, the organization reserves the right to not support the accommodation costs.
